President's Report

President's Report

In this issue of the Neerlandia Magazine, we continue to advise you on our proposal to sell the clubhouse, to invest the proceeds and to move to and become tenants of the Morley Windmills.

We invited the Neerlandia Members to give us feedback, to ask us questions and to talk about their (individual) concerns regarding the proposal. To our relief we did receive feedback and questions; we also received overwhelming support through emails, telephone calls or personal approach.

Obviously some of you have reservations, which is totally understandable. The feedback has also indicated that there are some major misunderstandings, apparently fuelled by ill-informed rumours.

Over the last 3 weeks we have gathered all the comments we received and we have collected them in a comprehensive President's Report. It is our aim to create more clarity, give more assurance and to convince those members who are not certain yet, that the proposal to sell and to relocate the club's activities is in the best interests of Dutch Society Neerlandia and its members.

Due to the limited space in the magazine, the answers will be short. To accommodate those members who do not travel at night, we have changed the date of the Information Meeting from 17 June 7pm to Saturday 21 June at 2pm at the Neerlandia Building. (See advertisement on page 12)

As far as any answer that the committee gives to your questions, please remember that we can only answer questions to the best of our knowledge. We currently have a verbal understanding with The Windmills that we will rent their clubhouse. Before any agreement is signed between the parties, we will first ask for our Members' consent for the proposal. Once you have given your consent we will start writing a rental agreement, which, once finalised will be scrutinized by a lawyer. Once a legal rental agreement has been established, the Neerlandia building will go to market.

We would like to emphasize that, if we cannot finalise a satisfactory agreement with the Windmills, then the committee is committed to search for alternatives that safeguard the financial and cultural integrity of Neerlandia.

Now to your questions.

We are selling the Clubhouse should we not have a vote on this decision?

... No - the Committee has the authority to sell assets. Only if the club ceased to exist would a Special General Meeting would be required.

How will the members be assured that Neerlandia stays Dutch and that it does not become an extension of The Windmills/

How will the capital be protected / How do the Neerlandia Members have the guarantee that capital is only used for Neerlandia Members a/o for the Dutch Community/Is this the beginning of the end of Neerlandia?

... A new Constitution will be written in which the cultural heritage of the Club will be guaranteed. This will need to be ratified by a Special General Meeting of our members.

... The Capital will be held in a Trust fund with Trustees taking decisions of major outgoings.

... This is not the beginning of the end: our capital will grow and may even be used in future for our own, more suitable building.

Why is this meeting "informal"?

... Based on the feedback we received, we have now changed the information session from informal to only accessible for financial Neerlandia members. At the end of the presentation the committee will ask the members present to indicate their consent for the proposal by a raising of hands.

How much is the Committee expecting to receive for the building?

... It is not in the interest of the club to disclose the advice of Real Estate Agents but it should be well over $2,000,000.

It was mentioned that the proceeds will be invested wisely. What does that mean?

... Once we go to the market we will seek advice for a tax effective secure investment providing an acceptable average return.

What rent is Neerlandia proposing to pay to the Windmills?

... Our initial discussions indicate that a proportion of each Neerlandia Membership ($20 in first part discussions) will be paid to the Windmills. If this proposal turns out to be the final arrangement, the rent paid would depend on the number of members Neerlandia has from year to year.

The small Bar area at Morley Windmills

If we only rent but not amalgamate with the Windmills, doesn't that create a "them and us" situation?

... Any Windmills member can become a Neerlandia member; though it is proposed that the Dutch cultural integrity of the Neerlandia club and its members will be protected in a revised constitution.

I want to see the Windmills building before the information meeting/I live too far from the Windmills/I can't get to The Windmills

... The Windmills are situated north of the river and that is where a majority of our members live.

... The Committee advises Neerlandia members, who are concerned about the distance, to make a visit to the Windmills grounds, when the soccer club is having a home game at Wotton Reserve, Morley.

... We have planned a coffee morning for Friday 6 June. There

President's Report

will be a bus leaving from 230 Cambridge Street to take those

People, who do not have a car, to The Windmills Clubhouse. See page 25.

... With time the Committee will look at alternatives for those members who travel by public transport.

The car park facility hold 150 cars

Windmill's children's playing area

It is so easy to pop into our current building for a drink after work. Morley/Embleton is too far for me.

... A questionnaire held amongst the younger Dutch on the future of our club, indicated that more grass/playing area and parking space was required before those families would visit the Dutch Club. We listened.

Has the Committee looked at other options?

... Yes - refer to President's Report in the Neerlandia Magazine - May issue

What will happen to the Shop?

... There will not be a Dutch shop in the Windmills Clubhouse. However, if the need arises, Neerlandia will look at alternatives to accommodate those Neerlandia members who still want to shop for their imported Dutch products.

What will happen to DACWA?

... DACWA will look for and buy its own property. The projection of Neerlandia's future cash flow will provide an allowance to assist DACWA with their new premises.

I have a Carer who now takes me to DJVV on Thursday. How will I get to the Windmills?

... Your carer will take you to the Windmills; nothing will change for you or your transport

Who is paying for the improvements of the Windmills facilities?

... If the improvements are to the benefit of the Neerlandia members, Neerlandia will carry the cost. This cost will be recognized in the final rental agreement.

What's in it for me as a Neerlandia member?

... The Committee wants a club with financial security into the future to continue to be a focal point for people of Dutch heritage. With the sale of the building we will be able to pump money back into the club and to extend the services and activities available to members.

... We are thinking of a Neerlandia magazine in full colour

... We will consider an allowance to subsidize the sub-clubs

We should stay in the current building, which is a Dutch heritage building / I am emotionally attached to this building.

... As will be demonstrated at the information meeting, Neerlandia in its present form could well run out of money within five years and could then be pushed into a forced sale of the building and liquidation of the club in its present form. To sell and leave on our own terms from a reasonably strong financial position is significantly more preferable.

... For economic reasons it would be unwise to stay in the current building:

... Decreasing amount of members expected over the years to come = decreasing our income

... Current 50 year-old building is ageing = rising maintenance cost

... Overall rising cost like energy, rates and insurance. Those outgoings are increasing with a decreasing income.

... Lack of volunteers = lack of functions = lack of income

... The current Wembley building itself has no Dutch heritage as it used to be a party centre prior to Neerlandia buying it. The Dutch atmosphere in the building is created by the Neerlandia members. Neerlandia shares a common foundation and cultural heritage with the Windmills and our proposed future relationship builds on this shared heritage.

What will happen to the Dutch treasures in the club?

Bar in the Windmills main hall

... Some will come with us to decorate the Windmills clubhouse; others will be returned to the rightful owners. Other treasures will be offered for sale to the Neerlandia members. Proceeds will go back into the Club.

My visit to the Dutch club in Brisbane

While on holidays in Queensland in April, I visited the Dutch Club in Brisbane. The Clubhouse is well out of the CBD: by train it took me about 45 minutes to get to the nearest station from Brisbane City Centre; from the station it was another 10 minutes walk. However, the visit to the Club was worth the trip!

I had been advised to drop in on a Friday morning as the club is always open on that day. To my regret I did not meet the President or Secretary but I was warmly received by enthusiastic volunteers.

Margreet, who looks after the shop, made me a coffee while we compared notes between the Queensland Dutch Club and ours here in Perth. Later we were joined by committee member Sabby and Jan and maintenance man Bill. As this particular Friday was preceding a Saturday night function with the Carnivals Club "The Stirrers" it was a truly busy bee morning with volunteers setting up the hall.

Sadly, The Stirrers' show "A trip down Memory Lane" was also their last performance as their days as a Carnivals Club have come to an end. This introduced an amicable and interesting discussion about the future of both clubs - is there a future? And if so, how do we get to the future? I was pleased to hear that the Dutch Business Club in Brisbane had approached the Dutch Club to see if the Business Club could organize their Koningsdag on their grounds. Sponsored by Heineken, the celebrations with old and new Dutch at the Dutch Club promised to be a success.

When asked, I explained how Neerlandia over the last 6 years has tried slowly but successfully to get younger Dutch interested in the club and how changes in the overall set up of the club are now occurring. Obviously "Queensland" was interested in our "Windmills-option" and they agreed that we are in a favorable position to have another, originally Dutch organization, with whom we can work as a team towards a better future for all involved. Queensland too is trying very hard to keep the Dutch Heritage and the Dutch Culture going and they too have realized and accepted that the old ways of running the club have to make space for a newer, updated vision.

I sincerely hope that the friendship I experienced that Friday morning will continue and that we can, on a regular basis, exchange ideas regarding the development of future plans for our Dutch Clubs in Australia.

We all agreed that the idea of a clubhouse and regular functions is not what the new Dutch are looking for. What they are looking for, however, is to have a hub with multi facilities, all relating to the Netherlands, our heritage. With cooperation between older and new Dutch this can be achieved.

I have every intention to stay in contact with not only the Dutch Club in Queensland but also with the other Dutch Clubs in Australia. We can learn from each other and together we can work to a bright future of everything Dutch in Australia.

Zusje

Door Rosamund Lupton

Debuutroman van een Engelse schrijfster, waarin Tess, de zus van Beatrice, dood wordt gevonden in een toiletgebouw in Hyde Park te Londen. Iedereen is ervan overtuigd dat ze zelfmoord heeft gepleegd, omdat ze depressief zou zijn na de dood van haar pasgeboren baby. Alleen Beatrice gelooft niet dat haar zus, met wie ze veelvuldig intensief contact had, tot zoiets in staat was. Maar Beatrice staat geheel alleen in die overtuiging als ze gaat graven in het leven van haar zus, op zoek naar de waarheid. Ze stuit dan op een angstaanjagend complot, waarbij ze zelf groot gevaar loopt. Het verhaal wordt verteld vanuit het perspectief van Beatrice, de ik-persoon, die zich geheel in een lange brief richt tot haar overleden zusje Tess (jij). Dit maakt het heel intiem. Gelijktijdig vertelt Beatrice haar verhaal aan een denkbeeldige advocaat van het Openbaar Ministerie, vanaf het moment dat Tess als vermist werd opgegeven tot aan de verrassende ontknoping. Een knap geschreven aangrijpend verhaal met een goede karaktertekening en mooi taalgebruik. Een vlot leesbare, boeiende thriller.

Jenever based Cocktails this month!

My oma used to drink it with sugar, my parents drink it neat but many a younger Dutch now visiting the Dutch Club are not used to the taste of Dutch jenever.

I went to the net and found some interesting cocktails based on Dutch jenever.

So, providing you are 18+ y.o., buy yourselves a bottle of jenever next time you visit the club and get cracking:

NTG (Niet te geloven)

- 2oz Dutch jenever *
- 1/2oz pineapple juice
- 1/2oz lemon juice
- 1/2oz vanilla syrup (Simple Syrup)
- 3 thin slices jalapeno pepper (or pinch red pepper flakes)
- 1 piece of pineapple roughly cut
- 1 dash Angostura bitters

Mix pineapple with pepper and juices, add all other ingredients and strain into a chilled cocktail glass.

Uphill Each Way

- 2oz Dutch jenever
- 3/4oz pastis
- 3/4oz lime juice
- 3/4oz simple syrup*
- 1 dash Angostura bitters

Shake with cracked ice and strain into a chilled cocktail glass.

Fluyt

- 2oz Bols Genever
- 1oz cognac
- 1/2oz dry vermouht
- 5 dashes Peychaud bitters (try Dan Murphy's)
- 2 dashes Fee's whiskey barrel-aged bitters
- 1 demerara sugar cube
- green Chartreuse liqueur, for rinsing
- lemon twist, for garnish

In a mixing glass, drop your cube, add your Peychaud and stir sugar until dissolved. Add the rest of the ingredients and stir with ice. Rinse a chilled old fashioned glass with green Chartreuse, strain and garnish with lemon twist.

Editorial and June Birthdays

Dear readers,

The World Cup Soccer matches are less than 2 weeks away.

As SBS will broadcast all the matches live, there will be quite a few people walking around during the daytime with bloodshot eyes, after staying up most nights watching some of the more important matches live.

Neerlandia will not show any of the matches in their clubhouse due to the ungodly hours the matches are played, the red tape inflicted by the Licensing Authority as well as the local council.

Talking about the Dutch team, Robin van Persie was injured once again and only recently made a comeback in the Manchester United team with little impact. With the European soccer leagues in recess, the Dutch coach van Gaal will have to make a difficult decision, play him or not.

The Dutch team has fallen to no: 15 in the world rankings. This is no great surprise as they have been unable to win any of their last 4 international matches. On the 17th of June they drew 1-1 with Uruguay in Amsterdam.

Other World Cup events in the Netherlands.

The Men & Women's Hockey World Cups are held in the Hague early in June, overlapping the Soccer.

In Memoriam.

On the 7th of May Adriana (Zus) Moesker, the wife of the Windmills Sports Club president Wout Moesker passed away after a long illness.

The two of them have been involved, not only with the Windmills Soccer Club since its beginning in the late 1940's, but also with the Windmills Klaverjas Club, which was the forerunner of the Neerlandia Klaverjas Club.

My sincere condolences to Wout, Wilma and their family.

(The following news item was copied from the NOS News Web Service. It deals with an interesting aspect of the financial crisis in the Netherlands. It shows that despite our own austerity budget, we still live in the lucky country, Editor)

Eigen bammetje strop voor cateraar

Veel bedrijven bezuinigen op de bedrijfskantine

Cateringbedrijven hebben het zwaar. Sinds het topjaar 2008 (totale omzet in de branche toen 1,23 miljard euro) is hun omzet met een kwart gedaald tot iets meer dan 900 miljoen euro in 2013.

"Wij richten ons op de werkende mens. Die zijn er natuurlijk minder door de crisis", zegt Jos van Straten van de Veneca (Vereniging Nederlandse Cateringorganisaties). Leden van de Veneca zijn onder meer Sodexo, Albron, SAB en KLM Catering.

"Veel bedrijven zijn failliet gegaan, hebben dus geen restaurant meer. Maar bedrijven die de bedrijfskantine wél houden, bezuinigen enorm: met een kleiner en sober assortiment, er wordt minder eten en drinken besteld voor vergaderingen en feestjes. Dat zie je bij bedrijven, maar natuurlijk ook bij de overheid."

Zuinigjes

En werknemers zijn, zeker door de crisis, ook kritischer op hun uitgaven. Wie elke dag een euro of drie uitgeeft in het restaurant, geeft op jaarbasis al gauw zo'n 600 à 700 euro uit. 'Bammetjes' van thuis zijn een stuk goedkoper.

Van Straten: "Dat is het gekke, werknemers hebben niet veel over voor hun lunch in de kantine. Dan heb ik het over de basis: brood, boter, beleg.

Gemiddeld wil hij daarvoor 2,70 euro betalen."

Is de kantinelunch duurder, dan bestaat volgens Van Straten de kans dat de werknemer gaat lunchwandelen en buiten de deur opeens wel bereid is vier euro of meer neer te tellen voor een dik belegd broodje.

Subsidie

En dan te weten dat veel bedrijven de lunch op dit moment subsidiëren. De baas betaalt mee aan de soep en de kroket. "Als die subsidie wegvalt, en naar verwachting gaat dat gebeuren, wordt de lunch in het bedrijfsrestaurant nog duurder", zegt Van Straten. Uit cijfers van marktonderzoeker Foodstep blijkt dat vorig jaar zo'n 54 procent van de werknemers in ons land terecht kon in een bedrijfskantine. In 2010 was dat nog 60 procent. Foodstep-onderzoeker Rien de Koning: "Dat betekent dat de afgelopen jaren één op de tien bedrijven zijn kantine voor het personeel heeft gesloten."

Thuiswerkers

Ook groeit het aantal zzp'ers enorm hard. "Ook zij komen zelden meer in een bedrijfsrestaurant. En wat te denken van het aantal thuiswerkers: mensen die één of twee dagen per week thuis aan de slag gaan en dus geen gebruik maken van de kantine."

Reorganisaties

Ook in de zorg worden cateraars getroffen. De Koning: "Daar zie je dat door reorganisaties een enorme druk ontstaat op de kosten. En door sluiting van tehuisen zijn er gewoon minder monden te voeden."

Hoewel voeding maar 4 procent uitmaakt van alle kosten in de zorg, wordt daar enorm op beknipt. "Bij tehuisen die openblijven, gaat gewoon de kaasschaaf erover." De Koning vindt het schrijnend: "Uit onderzoek blijkt dat ouderen de dagelijkse maaltijden enorm belangrijk zijn. Ze bepalen 70 procent van het 'levensgeluk', ook door het sociale element. Dat daar zo op bezuinigd wordt, is eigenlijk onbegrijpelijk en schandalig."

Ommekeer

Volgens De Koning zitten de cateraars nog niet op hun dieptepunt. De werkloosheid stijgt immers nog steeds, nog altijd bezuinigen bedrijven op de kantine. "Zolang de baas de lunch subsidieert, blijft de focus liggen op de kostprijs. De baas wil het vooral zo goedkoop mogelijk hebben. Als straks die steun wegvalt, kan de ommekeer komen. Dan komt bij de cateraars de wens van de werknemers centraal te staan. Die werknemer wil meer variatie, producten die (nog) lekkerder zijn. Dan kan het aantal gasten in het bedrijfsrestaurant misschien weer stijgen." Eén ding weet Van Straten van de Veneca zeker: "De tijd van een jaaromzet van 1,2 miljard euro; die tijd komt nooit meer terug."

Laughter is still the best medicine

Why I'm divorced . . .

Last week was my birthday and I didn't feel very well waking up on that morning.

I went downstairs for breakfast hoping my wife would be pleasant and say: 'Happy Birthday!' and possibly have a small present for me.

As it turned out, she barely said good morning, let alone 'Happy Birthday.'

I thought.... Well, that's marriage for you, but the kids.... They will remember.

My kids came bounding down stairs to breakfast and didn't say a word.

So when I left for the office, I felt pretty low and somewhat despondent.

As I walked into my office, my secretary Jane said: 'Good Morning Boss and by the way, Happy Birthday !'

It felt a little better that at least someone had remembered.

I worked until one o'clock, when Jane knocked on my door and said: 'You know, it's such a beautiful day outside and it is your Birthday, what do you say we go out to lunch, just you and me.'

I said, 'Thanks Jane, that's the greatest thing I've heard all day. Let's go!'

We went to lunch. But we didn't go where we normally would go.

She chose instead at a quiet bistro with a private table. We had a couple of martinis each and I enjoyed the meal tremendously.

On the way back to the office, Jane said: 'You know, it's such a beautiful day... We don't need to go straight back to the office, do we?'

I responded: 'I guess not. What do you have in mind?'

She said: 'Let's drop by my apartment, it's just around the corner.'

After arriving at her apartment, Jane turned to me and said: 'Boss, if you don't mind, I'm going to step into the bedroom for just a moment. I'll be right back.'

'OK,' I nervously replied.

She went into the bedroom and after a couple of minutes, she came out carrying a huge birthday cake ...

And she was followed by my wife, my kids and dozens of my friends and co-workers, all singing 'Happy Birthday'.

And I just sat there....

On the couch.... In my birthday suit!!!!

Racism?

Everyone seems to be reacting way over the top to scream 'racism' these days.

A customer asked: "In what aisle could I find the Irish sausage?"

The clerk asks: "Are you Irish?"

The guy, clearly offended, says: "Yes I am. But let me ask you something.

If I had asked for Italian sausage, would you ask me if I was Italian? Or if I had asked for German Bratwurst, would you ask me if I was German?

Or if I asked for a kosher hot dog would you ask me if I was Jewish? Or if I had asked for a Taco, would you ask if I was Mexican? Or if I asked for Polish sausage, would you ask if I was Polish?"

The clerk says, "No, I probably wouldn't."

The guy says, "Well then, because I asked for Irish sausage, why did you ask me if I'm Irish?"

The clerk replied: "Because you're in Bunnings."

Never Argue with a Woman

One morning the husband returns after several hours of fishing and decides to take a nap. Although not familiar with the lake, the wife decides to take the boat out. She motors out a short distance, anchors and leans back on some pillows to read her book.

Along comes a Game Warden in his boat. He pulls up alongside the woman and says, 'Good morning, Ma'am. What are you doing?'

'Reading a book,' she replies.

'You're in a Restricted Fishing Area,' he informs her.

'I'm sorry, officer, but I'm not fishing. I'm reading'

'Yes, but you have all the equipment. For all I know you could start at any moment. I'll have to give you a ticket.'

'For reading a book?,' she replies,

'You're in a Restricted Fishing Area,' he informs her again.

'If you do that, I'll have to charge you with sexual assault,' says the woman.

'But I haven't touched you,' says the game warden.

'That's true, but you have all the equipment. For all I know you could start at any moment.'

The game Warden turned bright red and uttered:

'Have a nice day ma'am,' and he promptly left.

CURA IN-HOME CARE NEWSLETTER

The Official Publication of Dutch Aged Care Western Australia Inc.
Trading as Cura In-Home Care

Goodbye from Joyce!

To all Volunteers, Members and Staff of Dutch Aged Care;

I would like to take this opportunity to let you all know that I plan to retire as of 31st July 2014.

My 5 years with Dutch Aged Care have flown by, starting as a Carer with the Care Team, Office Assistant to Karin our former Office Manager, Assistant to CVS/HVS Coordinator Bobbie and after her resignation I took over her job as CVS/HVS Coordinator, which was really where my heart was.

A great team of volunteers made my work as a Coordinator much easier, my door was always open if a chat was needed and vice versa. We supported each other in good times and bad times. The team interacted so well with each other and everyone chipped in when necessary.

Passion and compassion are the key words for the work they do; the team spirit between the volunteers is great and they are always happy to help each other out.

Without that, they couldn't do the work they are so exceptional in.

Siggi joined us as a Coordinator a little over a year ago and she fitted in perfectly in our team. That's how we became Team North and Team South.

I would like to thank our beautiful volunteers for the confidence they have/had in me.

I enjoyed working with them so much; they have made me so happy and feel really privileged to have been one of them. It is great working with all of you; you have taught me a great deal of things which is very much appreciated.

Keep well and stay healthy.

With much love,

Joyce

YOUR CHOICE, YOUR WAY

What is Home Care?

Home care packages provide assistance for people who need help to stay safe and well at home.

Sometimes you may find that you cannot manage some things around your home like you used to.

Home care packages are one type of assistance that you could use, alongside the support of family and friends and other community resources. They can help with personal care, general support around the home and help you to stay healthy.

If you think you might like to have some assistance, you can make enquires directly to us.

Call the Care Team of Cura In-Home Care: (08) 9382 1983

Or check out the website:

www.myagedcare.gov.au

To be eligible for a home care package:

Speak to your doctor and ask for a referral to the Aged Care Assessment Team.

An Aged Care Assessment Team (ACAT) will assess you and determine for which level of care you are eligible. All packages are Commonwealth Government funded.

If you are approved, you can let the ACAT know, which Home Care provider you would like to have.

"Koningsdag" at Neerlandia

John & Diana donated hall decorations

Koningsdag 2014 at Neerlandia

The month of April was an Orange affair. The Thursday night before End of Month Drinks Diana & John dropped into the club to deliver two huge plastic bags with orange paraphernalia to decorate the hall orange - and orange it was!

Freek, Inge, Liora, Karin and Lianna changed the hall into an orange hub to celebrate Kingsday 2014.

The following day was April EoM, which unfortunately fell in the longest weekend (or shortest week) ever. Only three working days between Easter long weekend and the Anzac Day long weekend meant that many people had left Perth to enjoy the last rays of sunshine before the start of winter.

Having said this, we still welcomed around eighty people, of which a few new faces. Consequently, both bar, shop and kitchen worked hard to keep the customer satisfied. (see the Pictures on the next page)

Movie - Oranje onder Vuur

The next day on the Saturday was the movie afternoon when we showed "Beatrix - Oranje onder Vuur": a very honest view behind the curtains of the Dutch Monarchy of before and during Beatrix' lifetime until her decision to abdicate and make place for Crown Prince Alexander to become King of The Netherlands.

The Dutch members that attended, surely got value for money as the movie lasted 3 hours. In hindsight we should have started the movie one hour earlier to give the members the opportunity to leave the club before dark. However, this inconvenience was quickly forgotten as the movie was an excellent choice for a Kingsday celebration.

Kroegenavond

For that same Saturday, Inge had planned "een oranje kroegenavond", especially catering for the younger Dutch living in Perth. This intimate function was also a great success with lots of young people turning up dressed in orange boa's, orange T-shirts and everything else orange.

By Monday we were certainly orange-out yet satisfied that we had been able to cater for every age group in the Dutch Community.

To all of you: thanks for turning up and joining in; we loved your support and feedback!

The divided town of Kerkrade

Kerkrade

(Compiled from the internet by PL)

Flag and Coat of Arms

Kerkrade is a town and a municipality in the south-eastern province of Limburg. With its annexed villages it has a population of about 100,000. The town was well-known for its coal mines that used to supply coal to the whole of the Netherlands before the mines were gradually closed down from mid 1960's onwards. The main reason for this was to cut down visual pollution but also because earth gas was discovered in the Netherlands and that gradually replaced coal as heating fuel.

Kerkrade is situated right on the border between the Netherlands and Germany and that border runs along the middle of the main street called Nieuwstraat/Neustraße.

Because of relatively unrestricted cross-border travel within the European Union, this border was for many years marked only with a low wall, about 30cm high, running along the length of the street. There was a separate 2-way road on each side, and cars had to pass through the official crossing points, but pedestrians could readily step over the wall (although there were signs informing them of the border).

In 1991, it was decided to remove the wall completely.

Nieuwstraat/Neustraße is now a single two-way road, with the extra space now occupied with trees and bicycle lanes. The border is unmarked, and is crossed even when going round a roundabout or overtaking a vehicle.

History of Kerkrade/Herzogenrath

Throughout most of its history, modern day Kerkrade was part of the historic city of Herzogenrath. It was called 's-Hertogenrode or 's-Hertogenrade after the duchy of Brabant took control over the region; in French it was called Rolduc (Rode-le-duc). As is the case for many parts of the Southern Netherlands, the place changed hands several times in the last few centuries. It was under Spanish control from 1661, Austrian between 1713 and 1785 and French between 1795 and 1813.

When the Kingdom of the Netherlands was formed after the French revolutionary and Napoleonic wars, the area's ownership was determined at the Vienna Congress.

When the Belgians declared their independence, they claimed the Kerkrade area as their own, but Dutch ownership was eventually restored in 1839 and the border with Germany was drawn right through the middle of historic Herzogenrath, creating the two adjoining towns of Kerkrade in the Netherlands and modern day Herzogenrath in Germany.

Coal Mines

In 1104, an abbey called Kloosterade or Rolduc was founded in former Herzogenrath, by an Augustinian priest named Ailbertus. After his death, his bones were buried in the abbey's crypt. In the 18th century the monks of Rolduc began small-scale coal mines. More modern exploitation by others started in 1860, causing Kerkrade to grow significantly, especially as a consequence of the permanent settlement of mainly Southern-European miners in this Northern-European place.

Shaft to the Old Nuland coalmine

When the Willem

Sophia mine was opened around 1900, the town grew even more rapidly, absorbing old villages like Chèvremont.

At the beginning of the 20th century, the first state mines were opened. Coal mining became the beating heart of the region's economy and the main source of income for many of its people. When all the mines were closed in the 60's, Kerkrade partly impoverished.

The divided town of Kerkrade

Tourism

Still considered one of the underdeveloped parts of the region by some, Kerkrade is not a main travellers destination. However, as renovations and facilities development take place, the town is gaining tourist popularity rapidly. Travellers who do take the effort to visit Kerkrade will find a good number of interesting sights as well a good attractions in and directly around town.

One of the oldest buildings in the municipality is Erenstein, a castle the origins of which lie in the 14th century.

Castle Erenstein which now functions as a hotel.

Eygelshoven

This used to be a small village near the town of Kerkrade in the southeast of the Netherlands, close to the German and Belgian borders. Two former coal mines could be found there, Laura and Julia, which were named after the wives of the two owners. They closed in 1974. Eygelshoven has a small former church from the sixteenth century, which stands on top of a hill.

The old church

In 1922, another church was built, the Johannes de Doper Church, designed by Architect Alphons Boosten. Plans to demolish the old church were abandoned in favour of a new use for it as a chapel and because of its historical connection. The old mining village of Eygelshoven was a separate municipality until 1982, when after more than eight centuries it was merged with the town of Kerkrade.

The Johannes de Doper Church

Abbey Rolduc, or Kloosterrade

In 1104, a young priest, Ailbertus from Antwerp, appeared in the Land of Rode, accompanied by two friars. They wanted to lead a simple life within absolute poverty. Adelbert, Count of Saffenberg on the Ahr and owner of a castle in 's Hertogenrade, offered them a strip of land on which they built themselves a simple home and a wooden chapel.

During the 14th, 15th and 16th centuries times were harder for the abbey in both spiritual and material terms. The buildings were heavily damaged during the Eighty Years War. Materialistically, the abbey began to prosper again in the late 17th century when revenue was generated from the exploitation of coal mines. In around 1775, Rolduc employed 350 mineworkers.

The abbey was dissolved by the French in 1796 and the buildings stood empty for 35 years. In 1815, when the Kingdom of the Netherlands was formed, the border was drawn through the ancient land of Rode, separating the abbey from the castle. The eastern part (including the castle) became Prussian Herzogenrath and the western part (including the abbey) became part of the Dutch municipality of Kerkrade.

Part of the former abbey is now used as a hotel and another part is a Congress Centre that can accommodate 300 people. Yet another part of this huge complex is occupied by a seminary. It is the largest abbey complex of the Benelux countries and is now one of the top 100 monuments in the Netherlands.

Kloosterrade or Abbey Rolduc is now a Conference Centre and hotel

Card Club Neerlandia First Term Competition Results

An enjoyable first term for the year ended on 8th May. During this term we were very pleased to welcome two new members to the Bolivia tables. Nel Ottenhoff and Gonnie Bonda have now mastered the rules and skills of the game under the guidance of the other players and judging by the regular peals of laughter coming from their corner appear to be having a whale of a time.

Then, some weeks later we were thrilled to have Riet Heymans return to our Klaverjas fold. After an absence of more than a year for health reasons, she was able to join us again on a regular basis.

As we enter Term 2, we hope that more prospective card players out there might consider joining us on Thursday nights. Doors open at 7pm and play begins at 8pm. The cost is $2 per night and coffee/tea with biscuit is available at a mere $1.

On Sunday 13th July, 2014 all card club members are invited to a Brunch in the Neerlandia Club House. It will be an opportunity for any interested persons to join us and spend some time in our midst. The normal cost is $15.00 for non-members of Neerlandia, but if you wish to come in as a guest of Card Club Neerlandia, the cost will be only $12.00. You will be made very welcome.

We congratulate all winners and wish those who did not make it into the prize category better luck in the next competition. Just remember, it's the fun and companionship that we enjoy every Thursday night that really counts.

At this point I want to thank Murray Koedyk on behalf of all members. Murray organises our games, checks the score sheets and keeps records of points won by each player every week and has done so for many years. I don't know what we'd do without you, Murray.

Some of our members have not been able to attend regularly due to ill health and we want to let them know that we miss them and we wish them a speedy return to good health.

May Sunday Drive

Our last Sunday drive was held on Sunday the 4th of May.

Quite a few people were still away on holidays which resulted in only 5 playing tables.

The first players arrived shortly after 10 am and they settled while enjoying a cup of coffee, they had time to catch up with friends.

Meanwhile Thea de Koning was in the kitchen from where she served everyone with coffee and she also prepared the lunches. Thanks Thea.

But despite the smaller attendance, it was "gezellig" and at 11 am the competition started and after 4 games or 3 hours of fierce competition, the scorecards were checked and the winners were announced.

The runaway winner won well by 525 points, but the 2nd placed player was only 62 points ahead of the 3rd placegetter.

The prize winners were:

1st prize	Jo Smit	7238 points
2nd prize	Pauka Wessels	6713 points
3rd prize	Riet Heymans	6651 points

The next Sunday Drives will be held on Sunday the 1st of June and the one after that on Sunday the 6th of July. Quite a few players just missed out on the prizes and to all those players: Better luck next time around!

Profile of newer migrants

Profile of a New Migrant.

This article will give the Neerlandia readers the opportunity to meet some of our newer migrant members, their family history, their life experiences, hobbies, work etc.)

We, Peter and Ellen Bles, migrated to beautiful Perth WA in April 2006 and we have never regretted this move. Before our migration we lived in Sprang Capelle (in the Netherlands near Kaatsheuvel, de Efteling) and we both worked at the ING Bank in IT. We tasted Australia during our first holiday in 2001, and since then we wanted to return to Australia every holiday. We didn't leave the Netherlands because we were unhappy but we just felt the continuous 'pull' to Australia. After thorough investigation we decided to go, arranged permanent visas (easier said than done) and we left when our house was finally sold (which also took about 1.5 year!). When we arrived here in Perth we first took a two month holiday during which time we bought our house, a car and we arranged all the paperwork such as driver's licenses, Medicare, private health insurance, etc. It took us 3 to 4 months to find a job. It took us much longer than we had anticipated as the labour market is very sensitive to having

"Perth experience" ; we still don't know what that really means considering we have here the same type of jobs as we had in the Netherlands.

Once in Perth, we kicked off our ballroom dancing again and we are having a ball every week practising our dancing during private lessons and social dancing. A popular dance style here in Australia is New Vogue, which was new to us and we enjoyed learning and practising this dance style.

We also found some new hobbies. Peter enjoys playing poker and Ellen enjoys singing in an amateur rock choir in Whitfords.

On average we return to the Netherlands about once every three years and we enjoy seeing our friends, family and all nice places we haven't seen for a while.

We especially like visiting "Appie Happie" for delicious food.

But, we are always happy to return to Australia again.

We love catching up on Dutch movies, when we fly with KLM or program them on SBS if they are broadcasted here. You can regularly find us in the Dutch shop in Guildford.

For both countries we have a very warm place in our hearts.

Peter & Ellen Bles.

Voetbal Nieuws - (Soccer News)

In the lead up to the World Cup Football 2014 we decided to re-instate the write-ups of the Morley Windmills Soccer Club. It had been a long standing tradition that Karel Hofstee, a former Windmills president, wrote articles for the Neerlandia Magazine, however, after his passing no successor was appointed.

Yannis and his wife Renae recently offered to keep us in touch on developments of Windmills' Junior players whilst Louis Marcus will write a bit about senior soccer.

Below you will find the first of a new series of soccer write-ups.

Update on Junior Soccer (Voetbal)

Hello Neerlandia,

To sit here and type that my lovely wife Renae and I have been busy with the Windmills juniors is an understatement!

We have doubled our intake of kids from last year to 60, which doesn't sound like a lot but trust me when I say, it's more than enough for 2 people to handle.

We now boast 5 age groups, from the little u6s right through to an u11s. Coaches were initially hard to find, which is always the case, but we now have 5 wonderful and committed men who put their hand up and take on the toughest job in football!!!! Louis van Gaal can say what a hard job managing superstars is in Holland, but coaching kids is a task in itself! The coaches were sent on a 3 hour introductory coaching course provided by the governing body at football west to which they said was a great stepping stone for teaching "our" kids the fundamentals of football.

The juniors' season kicked off on April 13. What was disappointing was our u8s, 9s, 11s, games were cancelled due to the opposition teams pulling out of the competition. The kids were a little upset but have been training and are ready for their next game. We have our u6-7s "cluster" at Wotton Reserve for 5 weeks and our little ones played very well and won most of the games. Needless to say the 2 coaches responsible were very proud of the kids....and themselves. We have the cluster for the next 4 weeks which gives us good grounds to showcase the club to parents from other smaller clubs and make some revenue from the canteen. With new equipment and new goals constructed and a lot of interest back at Windmills it can only be exciting, and with some little Cloggies running around in the next couple of years and maybe some help from the Dutch fathers, we may see the beautiful game of Total Football being taught to the kids at Windmills. Now that would be awesome!!!!!!

Regards,

Yianni Papaliaris

Senior Soccer

Hello Everyone, I am Louis Marcus and I am the Morley Windmills correspondent to keep you updated with the 2014 season senior soccer.

Until a couple of years ago, articles of the Windmills soccer appeared in the Neerlandia magazine, but with the passing of Karel Hofstee, a name still well known in the Dutch Community, no news items were forwarded.

For those of you new to the Morley Windmills, Karel became involved with the Morley Windmills soccer in the mid-fifties, when he was not only the coach of the juniors and team manager, he was also the overseer of everything Morley Windmills.

After so many years after the establishment of the Morley Soccer team, it is a pleasure to report that our main soccer team is doing very well. Out of three games we won two and we drew one, which means that at the moment we are top of our division - well done to players and staff: keep it up!

The plan is that every month I will tell you a bit about the history of the Windmills soccer club. At the same time, if any Neerlandia member likes the game of soccer, you are invited to come and have a chat to past and present soccer players.

You are always welcome at the Morley Windmills as we love to see you! So much for now,

Louis Marcus

Neerlandia World Cup Soccer News Neerlandia and Soccer

We at Neerlandia believe that we ought to show live broadcast of the Dutch games during World Cup 2014 in Brazil. However, due to the unusual hours that the Netherlands are playing, the Club's license doesn't allow for alcohol to be served or BYO alcohol to be consumed in the club.

Also due to regulations, for every event after midnight and before 8.00am, the Club has to have a police permit.

As we can't compete with the bigger, licensed venues, the Neerlandia Committee has decided against having live broadcast of the matches. But, nothing can stop us from shouting: Hup Holland
Hup, laat de leeuw niet in z'n hempie staan!

The Morley Windmills and Neerlandia would like to invite you to a coffee morning on Friday morning, 6 June at 10.30am

at the Morley Windmills Clubhouse

Wotton Reserve, Embleton

For those of you unable to travel independently, a shuttle bus with wheelchair access will travel between the Dutch Clubhouse and the Windmills.

The shuttle bus will start its service at 10.15am from 230 Cambridge Street, Wembley

Please call Gerry Creemers to book your seat:

CODEBREAKER PUZZLE

How to play the Game:

A Codebreaker is a crossword puzzle with no clues! Every letter of the alphabet has been replaced by a number, the same number represents the same letter always.

The codes for 3 letters are revealed in this puzzle. Start with entering these letters throughout the puzzle first and then look for a word with most letters given and start guessing your first word. If you are unsure, use a pencil, then you can erase and start again.

The last Codebreaker was not an easy one until you found or guessed the words

"Scimitar" (an Arabian antelope) and "Upstream". After those words were found it was plain sailing.

The solution of the May 2014 puzzle was:

A=3; B=6; C=24; D=4; E=13; F=11; G=25; H=16; I=9; J=20; K=2; L=5; M=7; N=21; O=14; P=18; Q=8; R=26; S=23; T=1; U=19; V=10; W=17; X=22; Y=15; Z=12.
